

Manasi Scott is known for her massive stage presence.

She is uplifting and sensual behind the decks and seems to never run out of energy, proving once again that woman too have a rightful place behind the decks.

Being a female DJ and with such an intriguing energizing personality, the crowd soon falls in love with her.

She is a singer/songwriter and now Producer/DJ with the amazing dubstep track HIGH out on iTunes and BeatPort.

Her singing performance experience in over 1800 shows worldwide allows her to understand music in a unique way and hence, as a DJ, she play House, Deep House, Tech, Lounge, Bollywood, commercial and EDM.

She was the Headliner DJ on world music day in Delhi at Shrooms.

She rocked LIV in Mumbai as a DJ before flying off to perform at a singer at the Red Bull Hangar in Salzburg

She recently launched the Belvedere Sundowner at AER playing her new breed of House/Deep House and Tech

Dance till you drop

Manasi Scott

Manasi Scott is all set to make Delhiites dance to her tunes tonight at Shroom. So, all the revellers looking for their weekly dose of Bollywood masti can head to this hotspot. The flashing lasers, dreamlike projections and all-encompassing sound system of Shroom makes the experience of being here fluid and unique. Shroom promises ample charm for the party people by inviting artistes from all over the world and introducing lively and stylish themes for them.

Dinesh Aneja says, "I am are very excited and grateful that we are associating with Shivkaran, owner of Smoke House Grill, and we are working towards taking Shroom to a different level which our guests will admire and enjoy to the fullest. We are also very excited about Manasi Scott playing this weekend and look forward to more such innovate artistes and positive response from our customers."
